

Download Abundant Life The Churches And Sexuality Ehaia Series

This volume will enlighten and inform church leaders and pastoral caregivers everywhere to how the churches can enable all people to enjoy abundant life. Edited by Ezra Chitando. He is the anglophone Theology Consultant to the WCC programme on Ecumenical HIV and AIDS Initiatives and Advocacy (EHAIA), and he is Associate Professor of History and Phenomenology of Religion at the University of Zimbabwe.

They are quite capable of transforming harmful cultural practices, death-dealing theologies, and oppressive systems, such as homosexuality, masturbation, women's sexuality, sexual rights in African initiated churches, suggesting helpful practices and ways of handling the issues and concluding with a call to the churches to be courageous, especially when dealing with sexual minorities. Their contribution goes some way to destroy the illusion that Africa is far behind the rest of us.
