Burke's speech, given in 1774, adds a good deal of color to this understanding, show Overall, this was good reading, especially for anyone with an interest in the pre-revolutionary period of American history.

"On American Taxation" was a speech given by Edmund Burke in the British House of Commons on April 19, 1774, advocating the full repeal of the Townshend Revenue Act of 1767. Parliament had previously repealed five of the six duties of this revenue tax on the American colonies , but the tax on tea remained.
