When buying chicken without skin, the flesh should look plump and have a nice pink colour. Always store chicken in a sealed container in the fridge or freezer (for up to 6 months) and remember to defrost thoroughly before cooking.

Whether you're just learning to cook, or have your go-to dinner rotation set in stone, these 10 recipes build the basic foundation that every great cook needs. From homemade pasta, to fudgy brownies, we've set you up for success.

Grilled chicken is always a favorite dish, especially during the summer months. You can grill an entire cut up chicken, which is great because the breasts cook a lot faster than the thighs or drumsticks. Skinless, boneless chicken breasts are especially popular for the grill.

Step 1, Mix first 9 ingredients in greased 2 quart casserole. Step 2, Sprinkle crackers and butter over top. Step 3, Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Many Cook's Essentials products are dishwasher-safe, made of stainless steel, and can be used with gas flame, electric coil, and induction cook tops. So cook with the best. Indulge your space with culinary must-haves from Cook's Essentials.

Shaun Hill's Southern fried chicken recipe is a great one to have on hand for informal gatherings, while Greg Malouf's Chicken liver terrine is a sophisticated dish worthy of a dinner party. Of course, no chicken recipe collection would be complete without a Chicken and mushroom pie recipe, such as this creamy comfort food staple from Nathan Outlaw.

We publish a lot of chicken recipes. A lot. And we love them all. But there are some that have risen to the top, either because we make them over and over again, or because we've gotten great ...
