The girls fully embrace their situation in this chapter of Harley & Ivy Meet Betty and Veronica, but two and a half issues into this trope, things are starting to get tired...

Overall, HARLEY AND IVY MEET BETTY AND VERONICA #2 is good Halloween fun. Sometimes, reveling in the silliness of a comic book premise is enough to thoroughly enjoy a work. While nothing life changing, it's fun and endearing and a must-read for fans of either property.

Harley and Ivy Meet Betty and Veronica is a character-driven story that seamlessly blends the "coming of age" themes of Archie with Batman's psychological themes, which is more clearly realized in issue five. While the miniseries is quite fun, it deals with issues that both teenagers and adults can easily relate.
