Kundig's Houses (2006) and Houses 2 (2011) are two of our all-time bestselling architectural monographs. Kundig was a 2008 recipient of a Cooper-Hewitt National Design Award and was elected to the National Academy of Arts and Letters in 2007. Kundig's firm Olson Kundig was named firm of the year in 2009 by the AIA.

Tom Kundig received multiple awards for his designs, including a 2008 National Design Award in Architecture Design from the Smithsonian Cooper-Hewitt, a MacDowell Colony Fellowship and eleven National American Institute of Architects awards. His book begins with an introduction written by design journalist Pilar Viladas and it was imagined to be more like a combination of a memoir and a monograph, with anecdotes, stories, and insights into the architect's way of thinking.
